IMPORTANT

Know Your Disability Benefits

Under most benefit Plans, MCTWF provides participants with various types of disability benefits when they become unable to work (see your Summary Plan Description and Schedule of Benefits for those available to you). To better help you to understand your disability benefits, we have summarized your options below. If you remain uncertain regarding your benefit entitlements, we urge you to contact MCTWF's Member Services Call Center to discuss your individual circumstance.

- Weekly Accident & Sickness Benefit (applies to participant only) - If you are disabled due to a non-occupational accidental injury, illness, or sickness due to pregnancy while you are actively employed and are unable to perform the regular duties of your employment, you may qualify to receive the Weekly Accident & Sickness Benefit. You will receive the weekly benefit amount and the maximum weeks available as indicated in your Schedule of Benefits. During the period you are receiving this benefit, you and your eligible dependents will remain eligible for all other plan benefits. Any remaining benefit bank weeks you have available will be applied once your Weekly Accident and Sickness benefit has been exhausted. You must file for this benefit within fifteen months after the non-occupational or non-auto related accidental injury or sickness due to pregnancy occurs.
- Extended Disability - If you are eligible for medical benefits under your MCTWF plan and your coverage has ended, benefits for services rendered in connection with the disability may be extended for up to the earlier of 24 months or your eligibility for Medicare benefits. For the first 90 days of such extension, benefit levels are dictated by whether you have chosen a network or out-of-network provider (subject to any deductible, copayment or coinsurance amount required under your MCTWF plan). For the last 21 months of such extension, coverage is provided at the out-of-network payment levels regardless of whether you have chosen a network or out-of-network provider. Coverage is limited to the treatment received for the continuing disability.
